

OUR SPEAKER...Jenny grew up in a suburb of Seattle, Washington. While attending The Master's College in southern California, she met her best friend Kevin Burns. They have called Redding home since 1999 when they were married. She and Kevin have three children; Kacia (10), Rylin (8), and Lincoln (6). They have been blessed to be a part of Cow Creek Community Church since 2001.

After walking a very hard road of grief, Jenny began teaching and sharing with women in 2008. She has her degree in elementary education but is currently pursuing a career in nursing. She and Kevin love the outdoors of Northern California, camping and hiking in new places and filling their lives with family and friendships. One of her favorite passions is seeking and sharing the truth of God.

You will be challenged and encouraged as she shares with her heart as one who desires to live a life set apart for our Lord and Savior no matter the cost.

OUR WORSHIP LEADER...Bre is the oldest of five kids and grew up a pastor's daughter in the area of Seattle Washington. In 2001, she and her husband Pete moved their young family to Redding, California. Now, entering a new stage of parenting and life, they have boy/girl twins who are freshmen in college in Southern California and a son who is a junior in high school. Bre is a worship leader at Little Country Church in Redding where her and her family attend.

A huge part of her life is serving and teaching in the young adult ministry called Haven, where she mentors young adults who feel called to serve God in the area of worship. Her and her husband also have a counseling ministry for those who are struggling with broken marriages and the pain of addiction. The burning desire of her heart is to live an authentic life, displaying the redemption and hope that Jesus Christ has brought to her.
