

Shasta Bible College Scholarships and Awards for 2018-19

Shasta Bible College is eligible to participate in the following Title IV programs: Federal Pell Grant, Cal Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG), Federal Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized loans, PLUS Loans and Federal Work Study (FWS).

Shasta Bible College offers institutional scholarships and awards. To be considered for the following scholarships and awards, you must file a FAFSA. Any Title IV funds must be applied toward a student's tuition before SBC scholarships will be calculated.

DEADLINES: The deadline for consideration by the Scholarship Committee for all grants and institutional awards is July 27 for fall semester, December 7 for spring semester, and April 13 for summer semester. The FAFSA must have been received and verified by the July 28, December 8, or April 14 deadlines.

APPLICATION: The awarding of institutional awards requires the submission of the SBC Scholarship Application by the student each academic year the scholarship is awarded. Granting of the scholarship is contingent each term upon meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress and approval by the Scholarship Committee. Forms can be found on the website: www.shasta.edu. Click on the financial aid link found under the Academics tab and look for the application on the right hand side of the page.

POLICIES: The Scholarship Committee can award up to 30% of tuition with a combination of institutional grants. Exceptions of greater than 30% the Talents for Christ National discount. Other exceptions must be approved by the President's Office.

Shasta Bible College offers a limited number of scholarships. The scholarships offered by SBC will be applied towards the student's tuition expenses only. Institutional aid cannot be used to pay for any institutional fees or California STRF fees. There is no cash value and cash will not be paid to the student. Should the student's expenses be covered by other assistance, the award may be carried forward to the next semester of study (one semester only).

All SBC scholarships require that the student fill out a FAFSA and a SBC scholarship application. Application forms are available on the website at www.shasta.edu under the financial aid tab. Scholarships are awarded by the Scholarship Committee and their decision is final. For any exceptions, see the Financial Aid Director.

Non-need based Institutional Awards (Undergraduates only):

Some awards are granted to students without the requirement of need (FAFSA and Need formula not required). The student must apply for these awards annually before the fall deadline of July 27 with the SBC Scholarship Application. Awards are granted by the Scholarship Committee and any exceptions are made by the Scholarship Committee at the time of the award.

All awards that can be awarded for a second semester are dependent upon a minimum GPA of 2.0.

Alumni Tuition Discount (Graduates only): Students who received their BA from Shasta Bible College are eligible for a 10% tuition discount for their graduate degree. Student must be registered in a masters level program.

Need based Institutional Tuition Discounts (Undergraduates only):

The following are need based tuition discounts offered after federal and state grants have been applied to a student's tuition account. The formula for the discount is $\text{Tuition} - \text{Aid} \times \% = \text{discount}$. Note that all institutional aid is non-refundable to the student and is for tuition only.

Christian Ministry Discount (Undergraduates only): The Full Time Christian Ministry Discount is a NEED BASED institutional grant for tuition only. The student must fill out a FAFSA. Any exceptions must be discussed with the Financial Aid Director. It is offered as an incentive and encouragement to those in full-time ministry and their dependents.

The SBC definition of "full-time ministry" is that the family receives its primary source of income from a ministry job such as a missionary, Christian school teacher or administrator, pastor, para-church worker or other non-profit organization worker that focuses on spreading the gospel of Christ. Volunteer work does not apply.

The definition of "dependent" is a spouse or an unmarried child living at home. One form of proof of dependency must be submitted with the application: The student is listed as a dependent on the student's FAFSA, or as a dependent on 1040 Tax Forms.

Dependent recipients of this award must be enrolled full time in order to receive the tuition discount. Independent students employed in full time Christian ministry or Christian education may receive the scholarship for less than full time.

The student must fill out the application annually found on the financial page of the SBC website. The first time the application is submitted, a letter of recommendation must be submitted from the governing ministry board stating that the family is employed full time in the ministry and is in good standing with the organization.

All applications will be considered by the Scholarship Committee. The formula for consideration is Tuition – Aid x 25% = discount.

Talents for Christ National Award: This award is given to the first place winner of the national Talents for Christ competition sponsored by the GARBC. The award amounts to a 50% tuition discount each semester for four consecutive years, provided the student attends full time each semester. The second place national winner receives a 25% discount each semester for four consecutive years, provided the student attends full time each semester. The formula for the discount is Tuition – Aid x % = discount.

Multiple Sibling Discount: Shasta Bible College offers a multiple sibling financial credit as follows: First student – no discount. Second student- 10% tuition discount. Third and subsequent students – 20% tuition discount. Multiple siblings must attend on campus concurrently. Married students are not eligible for the multiple sibling discount. The formula for the discount is Tuition – Aid x % = discount.

Senior Citizen (age 62) on campus tuition discount: Senior Citizens (age 62) may receive a 25% tuition discount for regularly scheduled on-campus classes. This does not apply to Distance Ed or Directive Study classes. A FAFSA is required as federal financial aid may be applicable. The formula for the discount is: Tuition – Aid x 25% = discount. All applications will be considered by the Scholarship Committee.

Retired Veteran's Discount: Individuals who retired honorably from the armed services are eligible to apply for a 25% tuition discount. All applications will be considered by the Scholarship Committee. The formula for the discount is Tuition – Aid x % = discount. Application is the standard SBC form found on the financial aid page online.

Veteran's Discount: Former military personnel with an honorable discharge who no longer have VA educational benefits may apply for a 10% tuition discount. All applications will be considered by the Scholarship Committee. The formula for the discount is Tuition – Aid x % = discount. Application is the standard SBC form found on the financial aid page online.
